Information Regarding Tickets, Staterooms, Meals, etc.

RATES quoted via this Division do not include rooms and meals. Cabin berths are furnished without charge to passengers holding first-class tickets.

Meals are served a la carte.

Half Fare is charged for children five years of age and under twelve; children under five years of age, when accompanied by adult passengers, are carried free.

Baggage consisting of wearing apparel and personal effects of passengers will be checked to all points to which tickets are sold, 150 lbs. being checked free on each full ticket, and 75 lbs. on half tickets.

Dogs are not allowed in saloons or staterooms under any circumstances.

Bicycle and Baby Carriage Charges are as follows: 50 cents between Boston and any landing, 25 cents between any two landings on River or Bay.

STATEROOMS are $1.00, $1.50, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00 each, according to location, and with very few exceptions accommodate two persons. During the Summer Season it is advisable to secure accommodations in advance. Passengers making application for staterooms from points outside of Boston by mail, telephone or telegraph are requested to address the Wharf Agent. The Boston ticket office has no control over rooms on steamers coming from the East. Rooms are apportioned to the several principal landings, and passengers desiring rooms for Boston must engage them at the offices in the East. Rooms at all Eastern stations will be reserved upon receipt of paid telegram, or upon application in person, by paying for same. Communications should state destination and must give the address of the writer, in order to insure attention and acknowledgment. When it is not possible to assign such a stateroom as may be desired, the best available room remaining unassigned on receipt of request will be allotted. Passengers requesting stateroom reservations should be particular to give day and date on which accommodations are desired. On the passage from or to Boston, staterooms must be claimed within THIRTY MINUTES after leaving port.

Parcel Room.—For the convenience of travelers, a parcel room has been opened at the main entrance on each steamer, where small parcels such as hand-bags, overcoats, umbrellas, shawls and other light articles are received and cared for free of charge. No bulky or heavy articles are received at this room, and the Company will not be responsible to an amount exceeding $15.00 for the loss of, or damage to, any piece checked therein.

Stopover.—Upon application at the Purser's Office, the privilege of stopping over in either direction, on through tickets, will be permitted.

The Time-tables shown herein give the time at which steamers are due to arrive and depart, but their arrival or departure at the time stated is not guaranteed, nor does the Company hold itself responsible for any delay or consequences arising therefrom.

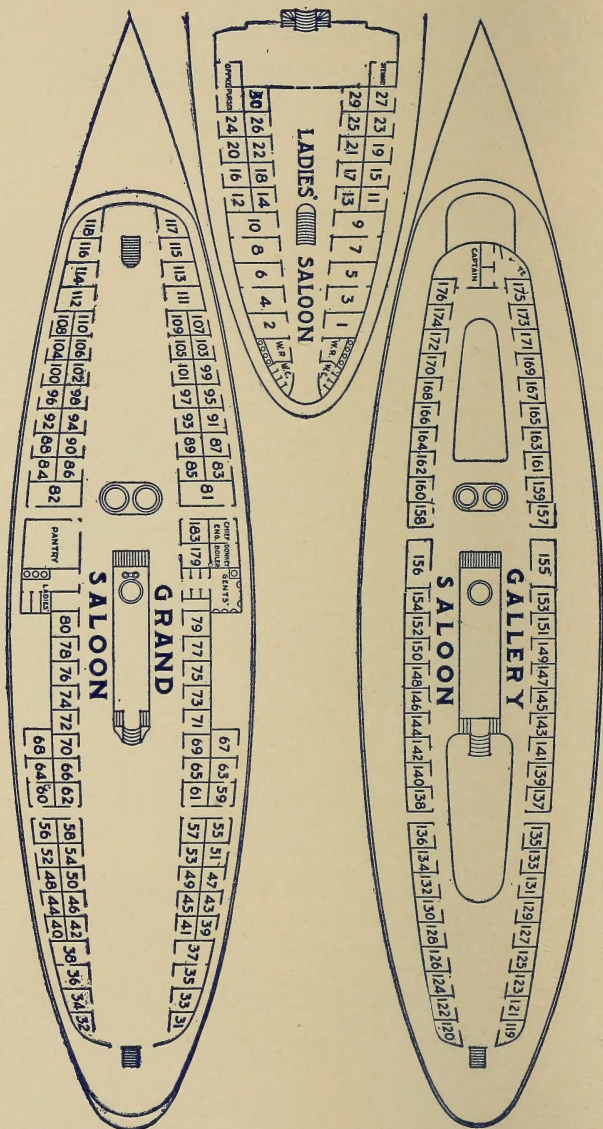

Suggestions and Complaints.—The Company invites suggestions for improvements and criticism of its service and will be glad to have prompt advice of any incivility or inattention on the part of employes. The management aims to render its service first-class in every respect; communications respecting these matters should be addressed to the President, and will be thankfully received.

Time-tables and full information regarding the service of the steamers of this Division may be obtained at any agency of the Company, or will be mailed on application to the General Passenger Agent, Fosters Wharf Boston.

Through tickets via the EASTERN STEAMSHIP COMPANY'S LINES are on sale at all of the principal ticket offices throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico.
